

PROCLAMATION HONORING
WEST ST. PAUL RESIDENT
LISA STEVENS

WHEREAS, Lisa and her husband Troy moved to their current home West St. Paul in 1998; and

WHEREAS, since that time Lisa was involved in many civic engagement efforts and worked to better the lives of others around her; and

WHEREAS, Lisa was a fierce advocate for women’s rights and women’s place in government and worked to help set the stage for other women in local government; and

WHEREAS, Lisa was first appointed to the Committee of Adjustments/Planning Commission by former Mayor Halverson in April of 2018, where she served as a dedicated resident and thoughtful advocate for six years including acting as the Planning Commission Liaison to the Environmental Committee; and

WHEREAS, Lisa was a consistent and smiling face present at all meetings; and

WHEREAS, Lisa presented herself in a thoughtful manner in her review of zoning applications and strived to make the community a better place for everyone; and

WHEREAS, Lisa was an enthusiastic supporter of local, state and national politics and served for many years as an Election Judge for the City; and

WHEREAS, Lisa supported Save the Children from a young age and continued her philanthropic efforts throughout her life; and

WHEREAS, Lisa’s legacy will live on through her giving heart, unwavering dedication, and joy she found in helping others.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, the Honorable Mayor David J. Napier and the members of the West St. Paul City Council do recognize and hereby proclaim September 23rd as,

LISA STEVENS DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of West St Paul, Minnesota, to be affixed on this 23rd day of September 2024.
